

Roseland Presbyterian Church

Congregation

July 23, 2023

Rev Oosterbaan welcomed the Congregation and opened the Congregational meeting with prayer.

The Clerk Linda Odgers verified that a quorum was present.

Rev Oosterbaan explained the 3 step process that must be followed in order to sell Roseland Presbytery Church's manse. First the Session votes to sell the manse then the session calls this congregational meeting for the congregation to act on the session's decision to sell the manse of the Roseland Presbyterian Church. Finally, The Presbytery of Northeast Jersey has to approve the sale of the manse.

Pastor Deb closed the Congregational meeting with prayer and opened the Meeting of the Corporation with prayer.

Ruling Elder Glenn Floyd President of the Corporation of the Roseland Presbyterian Church presented his handout considering the sale of the manse which was previously emailed to the congregation. From his handout Elder Glenn gave an overview of the process and costs.

After Elder Glenn Floyd made his presentation, he presented the motion from the session. The session of Roseland Presbyterian Church Requests congregational approval of the sale of the manse on 141 Eagle Rock Ave.

The principal is to be preserves and the income from the principal for the Ministry/Mission of RPC

After discussion Elder Glenn Floyd asked for a vote. The Congregational voted unanimously to sell the manse.

The meeting adjourned following a closing prayer

Respectfully Submitted, Linda Odgers, Clerk of Session and Corporate Secretary
